PIPP'S HOMER WINS GAME

Brings in Tying and Winning Runs, Yanks Beating Cleveland 4 to 3.

New York, Aug. 18.—Pipp's home run in the ninth inning today enabled New York to defeat Cleveland, 4 to 3. Fewster, running for Lewis, scored ahead of Pipp. The latter's hit went to the fence in right center. For seven innings the game was a pitching duel between Bagby and Quinn, the latter retiring in the seventh to permit Meusel to bat for him. ## GIANTS TOO MUCH FOR CUBS Defeat Weidman's Team 13 to 2 in Heavy Hitting Game—With Exception of One Inning, Game Was Well Fought—Imperials Here Today.

After playing two victorious games at Stamford, the Brooklyn Giants met and trounced the local aggregation of ball tossers yesterday to the tune of 13 to 2. The locals were never in it from the first, the visiting crowd getting a start of two runs first thing and never were in danger of losing the contest, if such it may be called. The dusky players kept adding a run or two to their list as things went along, and in the fifth got in a quintet, while the Cubs blew up. Oneonta made four of their five misplays in this frame. Aside from this inning, the game was well fought. The Giants made one boot and that happened in the ninth, when they loosened considerably and the shortstop got careless. Gatewood hit a ball over Hermet's sign for a hat and Hubbard, their pitcher, secured a homer, when his two sacker became lost in the grass near right field foul line. Brooks got four hits out of five times up.

After two had been put away in the opening frame, Kibbe hit Douglas with a pitched ball. The runner stole second and scored when Brooks singled to center garden. Lloyd also put a single to his credit and when Tryon misjudged where Scott's clout was going to land, the third straight hit had been made, and two runs were across. Remyon put up an easy fly to Marone.

When the fourth opened, Gatewood walked to the plate to lead off for his team. He connected with one that sailed high and far, clearing the left field fence, but that was all the scoring they could do that trip.

It was in the fifth that the locals blew up right. By means of a quartet of errors and a trio of hits, two of which had been intended for sacrifices, but which rolled safely, the Brooklynites really put the game in their bag so deep that it couldn't possibly find its way out. It looked as if they would get more than the five they did secure, but a double play with two on the sacks waiting to score, finished the agony.

Oneonta had a really good chance to gather in something besides a goose egg in the first. Dural was passed, and was forced at second on Dales' attempted sacrifice. Reiter touched one of Hubbard's offerings for a single into the left section of the outer gardens. Marone drove a hot one to Lloyd at short and he promptly put the ball to second for a force out of Reiter, and the ball then went to first for the third out.

In the sixth, Oneonta did dent the pan. Marone grounded and Dempsey sent up an infield fly which landed in safe territory, scoring shortly after on Tryon's long drive to right for three bases. Brown was safe at first, as the Giants played to keep Tryon at the hot corner. Brown stole second, putting two on and hopes were high for further scoring, but Boylan's effort had a great deal of power wasted, as the club broke in two. His fly was easily taken care of by Lloyd. Kinnere grounded.

In the eighth Marone doubled to left and scored on Dempsey's single to right. Dempsey and Tryon were each forced in, turn at second, and Boylan put up a fly.

The final tally was gathered in the final frame. O'Brien, battling for Kinnere, drove a fly to right for an out. Dural singled to center, advanced to the middle bag as the shortstop juggled Dales' grounder. Reiter singled to short, filling the sacks. Marone hit a sacrifice fly to left, Dural's being the run brought in. Dempsey hit an easy fly to second, finishing the game.

After pitching one inning, Kibbe walked to the dugout, with the words, "I'm through," picked up his sweater and left the grounds. But Kinnere had been warming up and the twirler's resignation as a member of the Cubs didn't leave Weeks without a pitcher ready to go on the mound. The Imperials will be here today. The Cubs have won three straight from this team in a $2,000 series.

Giants Again Defeat Stamford.

The Brooklyn Royal Giants played another game with Stamford yesterday before they came to Oneonta to meet the Cubs. The contest, which took place in the morning before a good-sized crowd, ended with the same score as Tuesday afternoon's game, 5 to 4, in favor of the visitors, but it was slightly less extended and also not quite as exciting. The colored lads took their usual liking to the ball, but the Stamfordites succeeded in holding them further in check than did the Cubs yesterday afternoon, and the game was fairly even.

SHORTS AGAIN RULE THE STOCK MARKET

European Affairs an Overshadowing Influence; Money Continues to Flow to Other Centers

New York, Aug. 18.—The session of the stock exchange today differed in no essential particular from the listless and reactionary trend of recent days. Shorts again controlled the market and exerted fresh pressure against many of the more volatile issues.

European affairs as expressed by the Russo-Polish crisis, were once more an overshadowing influence, although this was perhaps less perceptible in the desultory movements of foreign exchange. Sterling, lire and marks were irregularly lower, but the Paris rate strengthened.

Local monetary conditions also provided the bears with fresh ammunition. Money continued to flow from this market to crop centers, with consequent depletion of time funds, and call loans rose to nine per cent in the final hour, after opening at the prevailing rate of seven per cent.

Advisers from industrial centers were decidedly mixed, some supporting the view of local financial interest of gradual betterment. Recognized trade authorities made pointed allusion, however, to the failure of the railroads to come into the markets for new equipment.

Prices of stocks were mainly higher at the outset, but gave way under a series of selling movements during the intermediate and later periods. Motor, leather and sugar issues were most frequently singled out by the shorts, oil and shipping, retrieving part of yesterday's losses at the irregular close.

Trading in bonds was progressively dull, but embraced an unusual number of issues. Many of the active domestic groups, including Liberty bonds, eased slightly, but Dominion of Canada 6s of 1931 made up yesterday's two-point loss. Old U. S. bonds were unchanged on call.

REMARKABLE RECOVERY

Due to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Philadelphia, Pa.—"I want to let you know what good Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done me. I had organic troubles and am going through the Change of Life. I was taken with a pain in my side and a head-ache. I could not lie down, could not eat or sleep. I suffered something terrible and the doctor's medicine did me no good at all—my pains got worse instead of better. I began taking the Vegetable Compound and felt a change from the first. Now I feel fine and advise any one going through the Change of Life to try it, for it cured me after I had given up all hopes of getting better. You can publish this and I will tell any one who writes to me the good it has done me."—Mrs. MARGARET DAVEY, 743 N. 25th Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

It hardly seems possible that there is a woman in this country who will continue to suffer without giving Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial after all the evidence that is continually being published, proving beyond contradiction that this grand old medicine has relieved many suffering women.

CHURCH AND FAMILY

Once was a time when father and mother, big sister, brother and little brother set forth faithfully every Sunday morning to church. There they entered one by one, walked down the aisle two by two, save for little brother, who proudly led the way—and seated themselves in the family pew.
That held just five. There they sang, with father sometimes emphasizing his individual right to alter tune or key; they listened reverently to the minister's prayer, and attentively to the sermon that was to furnish the principal topic of conversation at the dinner.
And after the service, with the spell of its gravity lifted, they chatted viciously and vigorously.

Today, if one would see such a family group, one must go to old prints.
They are not often found in real life.
The more's the pity. For in the lost art of family church attendance there has been sacrificed one of the strongest ties that in former years kept burning the sacred heartfires of cooperation and understanding and good fellowship.

Is your community a center of family church attendance? Then yours is a blessed community. Is yours a home of family church attendance, where the members attend worship each Sunday together, not as a duty, but as a privilege? Then your family is a happy family.

POLAND'S FATE.

Conquest of Poland by the Bolsh-eviki is but another episode in a long and tragic career. The woes of Poland have been familiar in the ears of students of history since the earliest school days of the oldest living man.
The Slavish group known as the Poles appeared as early as the second century of the Christian era. For many centuries Poland has been the victim of attribution between two hostile forces, the Germans on the west and the Mongols and Tartars on the east. Its numerous "partitions" from the first made by Catherine of Russia in 1772, to the last in 1795, when the dismemberment was completed, brought the ancient kingdom to be the "döbr hat of Russia," as it was contemptuously characterized by the great empress.

There is reason to believe that in its ill-fated effort to restore her boundary to the original of 1772, Poland was encouraged mainly by the French. We know that in a mid way she was discouraged by the English, who were anxious to restore trade relations with Russia. Whether Poland now is to be completely dismembered by the Red hordes depends upon the Allies. Without strong outside military assistance she appears destined to that fate.

SECRETARY HUGO AT JEFFERSON

To Deliver Address at Field Day and Picnic, Aug. 26.

As the feature of the annual field day and picnic of Jefferson on Thursday, August 26th, Hon. Francis M.
Hugo, secretary of state, will be the speaker of the day.

The whole program will commence at 10:30 a. m., old time, with a series of athletic events, for which fifty dollars in prizes have been offered.
The events include, hurdle race, 150 yard dash, one-half mile run, baseball throw, tug of war, five men to a team.
For the tug of war the North Road team has challenged all comers.

There will be a five dollar prize for each event and for some of them there will be additional prizes.

Send your name and the race or races that you will enter to C. E.
Nichols Jr., Jefferson, at once. Everyone should enter these events.

Three movie shows will be given at 3, 7 and 9 p. m. The special will be of eight reels, entitled, "His Majesty, the American," with Douglas Fairbanks as the star. This comes very highly recommended as being one of Fairbanks' best. Special music by Miss Helen Peck.

At 3 p. m. there will be a ball game between Breakabeen and Jefferson.
This will be hotly contested and the people of Jefferson are looking forward to a game fraught with thrills.
Everyone is urged to go and to carry your lunch and eat it on the green. Plenty of space to park cars.

Cooperstown Golf Tournament.

Three Oneontans, S. E. McKean, H. R. Ford and E. L. Ward of the Oneonta Country club, have entered the annual invitation golf tournament at the Cooperstown Country club, which commences Thursday morning.
There were 42 entries two days before the close. Two silver cups, the Otsego and the Leatherstocking, and other prizes are offered.

Sell Harpursville Store

Attorneys for the Harpursville Feed & Coal company, Inc., of Harpursville, filed with the county clerk by Winhamton yesterday, a deed by which the company becomes owner of the Appler & Rutland feed store for a consideration of $5,000. The purchase was made from Thomas B. and Pheme C.
Lippincott of the village of Schenectady, Otsego county.

TWO HURT IN AUTO CRASH

Car Turns Over When It Hits Buick—William Wright Has Collar Bone Broken—L. D. Wade Hurt.

Yesterday afternoon, at about 2 o'clock, there occurred a serious automobile accident at the sharp curve in the Kingston highway near the home of Mrs. Charles Gardner about, two miles from the city limits. A Ford touring car owned and driven by William McDonald of Davenport and also occupied by William Wright of this city, Ralph Hill of Kortright and L. D.
Wade, a hardware dealer in Davenport, was approaching the city and a Buick roadster driven by Edward Gonigal of Cleveland, Ohio, were the principals in the accident, although at least two other cars figured to some extent.

As the Ford, the occupants of which were coming to the city to attend the Oneonta Cub-Brooklyn Giant ball game at Neahwa park, was rounding the curve, three cars appeared coming from the direction of the city. The Buick, which was in the accident latter, was in the act of passing a Ford coupe and another car was just ahead of the Ford. Mr. Gonigal, therefore, seeing that he could not pass the other car before meeting the Davenport party, pulled up and attempted to turn in behind it, but was either a little too late or was not seen by Mr. McDonald.
The cars struck each other, the inside hubs locking together, but the Ford being the lighter was thrown to the side of the road and then rolled over twice, landing in the ditch close to the Gardner barn with all its occupants pinned underneath.

Help was soon at hand from the other cars which were at the scene and they were quickly freed. Mr.
Wright, who was the most seriously hurt, was not at first thought to have suffered any injury other than the shock, but as he was resting he fainted and some little difficulty was experienced in reviving him. He was brought to his home at 337 Main street by another motorist and Dr. Marshall Latcher was called. It was found that he had received a broken collar-bone and some other very painful bruises, but is expected to recover. Mr. Wade was pinned fast by either the windshield frame or the steering wheel and he suffered somewhat from lack of breath, but when he was attended by Dr. Latcher at the Stag hotel, he was found to have only received some painful bruises about the chest. Neither of the other men were hurt nor was Mr. Gonigal, who is a traveling salesman for the Perfection Oil and Grease company of Cleveland, Ohio, and has charge of the states of Maryland, Pennsylvania and New York. The accident was witnessed by several motorists, among whom were Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Sleeth of 457 Washington avenue, Bellville, N. J., and by Mrs.
Gardner. They state that after the two cars locked, the Ford was hurled sideways and seemed to stand on end for an instant, then it fell backwards and rolled over twice into the ditch with its front end toward Davenport.

The car was badly wrecked, both wheels on the inside were smashed, the top and windshield were crushed and the steering gear was twisted out of shape. Both hub caps on the running board and rear fender were broken and partly torn off. Both parties say that they were driving at a moderate speed and that they are confident that they were on their own side of the road, although the testimony of some of the witnesses is that both were in the wrong and that they are willing to help in proving it.

Forty Pounds of Opium.

Norwich, Aug. 17.—"Roll a little pill for me" the friends of the four yegmen who entered the Norwich Pharmaceutical company plant Sunday morning and carried away 40 pounds of opium, may be saying right now. The yegmen made a complete getaway, though they left some clues by way of finger marks on a cake of soap which they used while blowing open the door of the "poison room." A safe expert from Binghamton was called today to unlock the vault door which had been tampered with unsuccessfully. In checking up of the quantity of opium all stock was closely inspected. In the meantime the robbers are enjoying their liberty and the plant of the pharmacy is being the more closely guarded against any further thievery.

Oneonta W. C. T. U. Officers.

At the regular meeting of the Oneonta W. C. T. U., held yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Jackson, at 41 Ford avenue, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year:

President—Mrs. Genevieve Holmes.
Vice president—Mrs. Lila Walker.
Corresponding Secretary—Mrs.
Luelia Clarke.

Recording Secretary—Mrs. Elizabeth VanDerhulst.

Treasurer—Mrs. Emma Fick.
The union appropriated $10 for the work of the local Salvation Army. The next meeting will be held at the same place September 8.

Cows Making Fine Record.

The herd of cows owned by the State School of Agriculture at Cobleskill has made remarkable progress during the past year. The herd contains representatives of Holsteins, Guernseys, Ayrshires, Jersey and Swiss breeds in order to familiarize the students of the school with the best dairy breeds in the country. The average production of milk for the last complete milking period for the herd was 8,754 pounds or nearly 4½ tons of milk per animal. When one considers that the average for the state is less than 5,000 pounds it is easy to see what this means.

For Sale—Fine property on Otsego street. House in good condition. Street fronted. Bargain if sold at once. Phone

Digs, then Fills the Ditch

[National Crop Improvement Service.]

By W. A. MARTIN.

NECESSITY is the mother of invention and Yankee ingenity will always meet the emergency. The more talk there is about labor shortage, the keener will be the inventors. There is a man named Hughes who was a cow-
man named Hughes who was a cowpuncher, stage driver and all-round handy man, who took the contract some three or four years ago to lay a forty-seven mile pipe line to the Lost Soldier oil field, north of Rawlins, Wyo.

He had little but his head and his team, but he got a V-shaped ditcher and graded a road with it into that field to carry supplies, then he took the contract for laying a 4-inch pipe and did all the work with the same tool, the V-shaped ditcher.

At that time he completed the work for little over one thousand dollars. Forty-seven miles of ditch 16 inches deep, whereby the old method with pick, shovel, plows, scrappers and hand labor, would have cost nearer twenty-five thousand dollars.

The V-shaped ditcher makes its own trench and turning round, backfills it perfectly.

If you want to know about draining, ditching, road making, or any other kind of work, ask your county agricultural agent to put you next to the scheme of doing it cheapest and best.

JESTER-GOLDSMITH REUNION.

Enjoyable Event at the Home of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Griffin near Otsego.

Wednesday the annual reunion of the Jester-Goldsmith family was held at the hospitable home of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Griffin near Otsego, about 70 being present. Hewitt Birdsell, formerly of this city, was the oldest member of the family present. He and Mrs. Birdsell are looking forward to the celebration of their 55th anniversary next year.

Officers for the coming year were elected as follows. President, of the Jester side, James Reid of Franklin; of the Goldsmith, Ely Goldsmith of Otsego; secretary and treasurer, Mrs.
James Reid of Franklin. The next meeting will be held in August, 1921, at a place to be later announced.

Following an excellent dinner served on the lawn, which all enjoyed, the president, Virgil Jester of Franklin, after brief remarks, introduced Rev.
J. C. Johnson of this city, who delivered an interesting and profitable address, touching upon the value of friendly associations and gatherings of the sort, and with some references to the questions of the day. His remarks were keenly enjoyed.

Members of the family were present from Otsego, Franklin, Treadwell, Walton, Hartwick, Ulca and Oneonta, those from the latter being Mrs. J. L.
Pope and daughter, Pearl, Mrs. Isabelle Birdsell, Mrs. Mary Narigan and Mrs. Inez Narigan.

It is wasteful to jeopardize other good ingredients by using inferior flavoring extracts. Baker's Certified Flavoring Extracts are made of the finest fruits and are noted for their purity and strength.

I'd rather get a letter like that, says
Peterson of Buffalo, than have John D.
Rockefeller give me a thousand dollars. It does me a lot of good to be able to be of use to my fellow man.

For years I have been suffering through ditching a large box of PETERSON'S OINTMENT for 35 cents. The leading power in this outfit is petroleum. It not seem to even relieve are speedily cov-

DOG QUARANTINE IN EFFECT.

Cooperstown Junction Man Bit on Hand While in This City.

The first day of the quarantine on unmuzzled dogs passed off smoothly yesterday and there was apparent inclination on the part of dog owners to accept in the right spirit the regulation imposed by the city board of health as a precaution against the possibility of an epidemic of rabies. Comparatively few stray dogs were noticed about the streets, and these went unmuzzled for yesterday, but it is expected that with today, 24 hours' notice having been given the public, any unmuzzled dogs found unmuzzled about the streets will be seized by the police department and impounded.

It was learned yesterday that the latest case of dog-bite that caused a lawsuit to be put on the bar was when Albert Mulhollen of Cooperstown Junction was bitten while in this city early in the week. While walking along the street, a ferocious dog snatched at him and bit him on the thumb, causing a bad rash. He was attended by a physician and his case is being closely watched so that if there should be any indication of rabies, prompt action could be taken.

Dr. Russell Little Improved.

Dr. J. C. Russell, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, is still a very sick man, according to word received yesterday by G. N. Rowe from Dr. Russell's son, Henry Russell, at Horseheads, where Dr. and Mrs. Russell are spending their vacation. Earlier in the week, Mr. Rowe had received encouraging word from Horseheads, it then being thought that the beloved pastor was recovering, but later word is to the effect that he is little improved and is in a serious condition. The community will anxiously await news that Dr. Russell is on the road to recovery, which all hope will soon come.

DRINK CAUSES DOUBLE MURDER TO BE COMMITTED AT ELK CREEK

George Brazee, An Auburn Convict, Who Once Before Attempted to Take Life of Woman He Now Murders, Shoots Fatally Anna Glenn VanPatten

HE ALSO ATTEMPTS LIFE OF GUY HUGHES

Later, Doubtless in Self Defense, Fires in Turn Upon Brazee, Who Is Reported Dying at Fox Hospital — Brazee Served Over Five Years for Former Crime

Mrs. Anna Glenn VanPatten, well known in the city, aged 48 years, was mortally wounded and George Brazee, aged 47 years, probably fatally injured, in a shooting affray which took place at the former's home in Elk Creek, three miles from Schenectady, at about 6 o'clock yesterday morning. Mrs. VanPatten is dead and it was said late last night at the Fox hospital, to which institution Brazee was later brought, that the surgeons did not expect that he would survive the night. Guy Hughes is being detained at the county jail at Cooperstown for the shooting of Brazee. Mrs. VanPatten was shot by Brazee, who was formerly her husband.

According to the story related to The Star representatives who visited the shooting, the trouble started over the price received for several dozens of eggs sold by Mrs. VanPatten the day previous. The woman and the two men drove to this city that day and returned to the woman's home in the evening with several bottles of Horke Vino and a dozen bottles of beer or near beer.

In the morning, Brazee is said to have started the quarrel and when Hughes took the part of Mrs. VanPatten in the argument, Brazee left the room. At that time Mrs. VanPatten was preparing breakfast in the kitchen and Hughes was seated at the table in the dining room. Brazee quickly returned and entering the kitchen, fired two shots from a .38 calibre revolver at the woman, both taking effect in the abdomen. She made her escape from a rear door.

Before Hughes could move, Brazee turned in the door and fired two shots at Hughes. One passed between his arm and body and lodged in the back of the chair in which he was sitting and the other struck in the table at which he sat. By this time Hughes had started toward the stairway leading to the second floor but he halted and drawing a .32 calibre revolver he fired two shots at Brazee. One bullet was deflected by a parrot cage and the other struck Brazee in the chest. The latter was not felled by the shot, however, and he rushed from the room, returning a few seconds later with a single barrel shot gun. Hughes then fled upstairs and barricaded himself in his room, where he was found later by the officers.

In the meantime, Mrs. VanPatten had struggled to the outside of the house and started for the home of a neighbor, Lester Pratt. About midway between the two houses, she fell. For a time the neighbors dared not go to her but finally, hearing or seeing no more of Brazee, she was carried to the home of Mr. Pratt. Dr. E. C. Windsor of Schenectady was summoned and later, Drs. G. W. Augustin and D. H. Mills of Oneonta were called to the scene. The woman's injuries were mortal and though an operation was first thought, she sank rapidly and died at about 1 o'clock.

Immediately after the shooting, Chief Horton of Oneonta and Sheriff VanZandt of Cooperstown were summoned to the scene. Chief Horton, accompanied by Officer Cross, rushed to Elk Creek and upon obtaining a story of the affair from Mrs. VanPatten, the officers went to the house. Hughes was seen in the window of the upper floor and in the dining room and kitchen and into the bedroom where the injured man was found on the bed with his fighting spirit gone. He had evidently sat at the table in the kitchen, upon the floor of which was found a pool of blood and the shotgun. Brazee still held to the pistol. Upon the return of the Oneonta officers they brought Brazee to the Fox hospital here, which was reached about noon. Dr. Marsh attended him. He found that the bullet had entered the body near the center of the chest, narrowly missing the heart. It has not been located. His condition is such as to give little

Victim Well Known Here.

The VanPatten woman was formerly Anna Belle Glenn and her father's family lived in a small home near the Glenn bridge over the Otsego creek below Oneonta Plains. She attended the Plains school and will be remembered by many who attended that school 35 and 40 years ago. She married Brazee some ten years before his first attempt to take her life. After he was committed to Auburn, she was married to Frank Fitzgerald, formerly of Maryland. Fitzgerald was killed in an accident on the D. & H. railroad at Schoharie Junction on Monday morning, October 14, 1918, in which Trainman Everett E. Griffin was also killed. The Fitzgeralds were then residing at 34 1/2 West Broadway, this city, he being employed as a conductor. Mrs. Fitzgerald obtained several thousands of dollars as the result of his death. Following his death, she was on March 13, 1919, united in marriage with Thomas VanPatten of Rensselaer. The whereabouts of VanPatten is unknown. It could not be ascertained last night whether the daughter born to her and Brazee was living or not. The dead woman has a brother, Peter Glenn, residing at 63 Miller street, but he is away on a trip to Chicago. John Glenn is a brother, but he could not be located. There are, it is believed, other members of the father's family surviving. Her father was killed at the bridge which has long borne his name, nearly 40 years ago.

WASHOUTS DELAY TRAINS.

Northbound Evening Train Three Hours Late; Trouble Is at Belden.

A cloudburst, which struck Chenango county late yesterday afternoon, below Oneonta, caused a delay in passenger traffic on the Delaware & Hudson and also much damage to crops. There were three serious washouts, which are single at this point, for a distance of about ten feet at each place and halting all traffic until repairs could be made.

As a consequence of the washouts, the evening train from Binghamton to Albany, due here at 8:25, was held up until the track could be repaired and reached here about three hours late. The southbound evening trains were only slightly delayed by the trouble and reached Binghamton in good season.

Freight traffic was practically uninterrupted, since the washout fortunately beyond Nineveh Junction and most of the freight along this division comes from Pennsylvania. There were minor washouts between Nineveh and Afton, but they did not seriously interfere with traffic. Work trains were sent to the scene of the trouble as soon as the storm was over and the track was restored as quickly as possible. It is understood that the cloudburst did great damage to crops.

BAKESHOP OPENS TODAY.

Barnard Ready to Furnish Oneontans With Fresh Baked Goods.

The Barnard Bakeshops, Inc., Robert Barnard president, will open their new store at 154 Main street today. The interior has been redecorated in white and all machinery has been installed and is in readiness for the first day's business. William Schloss, former manager of the Binghamton store, will be local manager.

Paul Delancey, of the Crandall-Peterson company of New York, manufacturer of bakers' supplies, has been in Oneonta superintending the installation of the equipment which is the last word in efficiency, consisting of an oven, placed in the window in full view of passersby, which will turn out five times as much baked goods as the older stoves, proving boxes, a bread mixer, a bun divider, display cases, sales counters, etc. All machinery is run by electricity.

Baked goods will be prepared continually so that purchasers may procure their edibles fresh from the ovens. Customers are invited to inspect the place and observe the bakers at work. The company makes a specialty of cleanliness.

DID THEY SEEK BOOZE?

DARING ATTEMPT AT HOLD UP AT NEW CLARK HOSPITAL IN COOPERSTOWN.

Two Men Appear to Night Watchman Late Tuesday Night and Demand He Throw Up Hands — He Opens Fire and Burglars Flee — Believed to Have Been Equipped with Truck and Motor Car.

Another daring attempt to make a haul, probably from the supplies of the new Clark hospital at Cooperstown, was made late Tuesday night, out was frustrated by the nerve of Night Watchman "Jack" Hibbard of the institution. He was reading in one of the lower corridors at about 11:30 o'clock when two men attired in long khaki raincoats and with hats well drawn down over their faces appeared in front of him and one of them shouted: "Throw up your hands and throw them up high." Hibbard replied "All right," but as he laid the book he was reading down on the table he picked up his revolver. Seeing this move on his part, one of the men attempted to open fire upon him, but the revolver failed to fire. At that Hibbard fired three shots at them and they beat a hasty retreat.

Hibbard at once aroused an employee of the Clark estates residing near and Under Sheriff Michaels, who also lives in the neighborhood, and a search of the buildings was made with no discovery, save that one of the doors was open through which they must have made their escape.

About two hours afterwards, when the excitement had subsided and the police officer of the village had returned to the business section, residents of a nearby section were awakened by an effort to start a motor car, which seemed to give some trouble. It was finally started and a few minutes later a car and a motor truck were seen to pass down the street and cross the bridge over the Susquehanna river near the lake outlet and were traced by their lights as they proceeded in the direction of Middlefield. It is understood about Cooperstown that the hospital received a few days since a shipment of a truck load of liquors direct from Baltimore, Md., and it is surmised by some at least that the offenders had received a tip and were engaged in an effort to make a haul from the stocks of the hospital, when their game was frustrated by the prompt action of the night watchman. The incident has caused no little commotion in Cooperstown.

There's No Secret In Making Gordon Tires

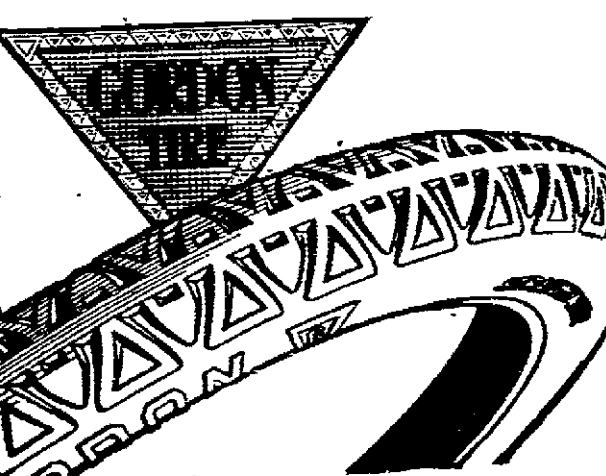

Almost any tire manufacturer could make as good a tire as the Gordon if he really wanted to. Gordon has no monopoly on good materials and fine workmanship.

But the ideal of the Gordon people is quality rather than quantity—to build a fine name for themselves through the service of their fine product. That's why we sell Gordon Tires.

While Gordon Fabric Tires are guaranteed for 6000 miles (8000 for Cords) it is hard to tell how much farther they will run. We don't think anything of a Gordon that runs ten or twelve thousand miles. That's another reason why we sell them.

Gordon Pure Gum Tubes are little brothers of Gordon Tires. They frequently outlast a car.

THE BIDWELLS CELEBRATE

Twenty-second Annual Reunion Held Yesterday at Sidney Center Draws Large Gathering of Relatives.

In the shade of the fine old—and the new—maples on the spreading lawn of the Chauncey Gager homestead at East Sidney, over 100 members of the association of descendants of Jacob Bidwell gathered yesterday for their twenty-second annual reunion.

Dinner—the former army men present called it "mess"—was served on the great lawn by feminine descendants of the fourth and fifth generation from fine old Jacob. The meal was a bountiful one and there was more than enough for all, despite the fact that there were two relays.

Following the dinner, Frederick D. Bidwell of Albany gave a talk on Jacob Bidwell, his birth in Hartford, Conn., and his emigration. The old progenitor came to these parts when only hunters and trappers roamed the thick forests and he was probably the first to settle hereabouts. For a time, he lived on the Outcrop creek. Later, in 1792, he built in what is after years became Sidney Center. Back in Hartford, where he was born in 1767, he had married in 1782, Martha Tompkins. The couple were patriotic predecessors of Theodore Roosevelt and started a prolific branch of the Bidwell name. The fine old pioneer is figured to have something like 125 to 150 descendants in Oneonta and Delaware counties and there are numerous others in the West.

Frederick Bidwell, continuing his talk, told what some of the Bidwells had done in the world war. Daniel D. Bidwell, the correspondent of the Hartford Courant in France, and who was twice under fire, was present at the reunion. Another namesake was Colonel Reginald Bidwell, commander of the 101st Grenadiers of the British army, who was active in the fighting in East Africa. Daniel Bidwell was asked to tell of his war experiences and gave a thrilling account of many of the happenings he witnessed, including a German air raid on London.

The following officers were elected for the ensuing year:

President—Raymond Oliver Bidwell of Norwich.

Vice president—Arthur Whitney of Holmsville.

Secretary—Mrs. Muriel VanTassel of Sidney Center.

Treasurer—Frederick Birdsall of Wells Bridge.

It was voted to hold the reunion next year at Norwich, the third Wednesday in August.

Among the 100 people present at the reunion were Daniel D. Bidwell and Samuel Bidwell of East Hartford, Conn., Mr. and Mrs. William A. Johnson of Oneonta, and Mr. and Mrs. Frederick D. Bidwell and son, Edmund, of Albany.

MARRIAGES.

Wilson-Marsh

Wednesday afternoon, at 2:30, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Henry S. Marsh, 417 Main street, occurred the marriage of their youngest daughter, Ella Mildred, to John Stacy Wilson of Middlefield. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. M. D. Sill, uncle of the bride and pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church of Potsdam, in the presence of about 25 relatives and friends. The home was prettily decorated for the occasion.

Miss Ella E. Sill, a cousin of the bride, acted as maid of honor and Andrew Wilson, brother of the groom, as best man. Myra and Alice Mildred Shumway, nieces of the bride, were flower girl and ring bearer.

The bride was very prettily dressed in a gown of white beaded georgette and carried a shower bouquet of pink and white sweet peas. The maid of honor wore pink crepe de chine and carried lavender sweet peas. After many happy felicitations a very delightful luncheon was served.

The bride, who is a young lady of most excellent attainments, is a graduate of the Oneonta Normal and a teacher of unusual ability, having taught for the past year in the Cherry Valley high school. The groom is an exemplary young man and a prosperous farmer.

The bride was the recipient of many gifts, including china, silver, cut glass and a substantial sum of money.

The guests present from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. George Wilson, Andrew Wilson and Miss Cora Garlock of Middlefield, Miss Minnie McKelley of Middlefield, Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Shumway and three children and Mrs. Earl Goodspeed of Waits.

WAR SHORN OF ITS GLAMOR

Modern Painters, Who Themselves Have Looked on Death, Depict Slaughter as It Really Is.

For the first time in history war is painted as it is. The varnish, the glory has been taken off. It stands out in all its sordid horror. The opening of the Salon des Artistes Francais, filled for the most part with canvases of men who have been in the trenches, show an astonishing absence of battle scenes.

Most of the painters have sought inspiration elsewhere. Those who have found it in the war have rendered only the dull misery of life at the front.

They show no clash of armies, these painters who have been through the war, no flourish of trumpets, not even fragments of general fights. Barbarism as it is. A soldier, limping toward the lines, exhausted, despairing, holding up to his mouth a handkerchief, dark as a clot of blood, is what one sees. The face is a stored with suffering, and the uniform is of that indescribable color which comes only from continual exposure to the elements. Garry paints a bundled soldier guided towards a relief station, Michel and Pouzargues show water flooded trenches.

If governments in the future wish more pleasant and cheerful war scenes they will have to call on artists who stayed away from the front. Those who served were too close to death to paint anything but the truth.

That Decided Him.

George was in a despondent mood. "But, Mabel, dear," he said, "marriage is out of the question just now. You seem to have forgotten that I'm a poor clerk on a meager salary."

"Oh, George, don't let poverty interfere with our happiness. We can live on one meal a day, if necessary."

"But you know nothing of household duties, sweetheart. Why, you can't even cook."

"Indeed, I can, love. I have kept it secret from you but the time has come for my confession. George, dear, I got a certificate from a domestic science school three months ago."

The young man gasped. "My darling," he said, "come to my arms. It shall be as you wish—one meal a day will be more than enough."

Newlyweds to Tents.

A honeymoon colony, believed to be the first of its kind in England, has been established in a meadow near Farnham, Surrey. At the edge of a certain wood half a dozen tents may be seen. They are the homes of the four brides and their husbands who, rendered homeless by the house short age, have begun their married life in the open air.

The colony is likely to be still further enlarged, for several other couples have applied for admission. From the Continental Edition of the London Mail.

All Blush Now.

Playwright Eugene Walter accuses of a New York publisher's conviction for publishing a supposedly obscene novel said:

"The novel in question is harmless, and the people who brought about that poor publisher's conviction were as silly as—as well as it reminds me of a story."

"The lady principal of a famous girls' school took her older pupils to the Metropolitan museum one day. Entering the hall of sculptures, the principal said, as she looked up from her catalogue:

"Attention, young ladies! When we come to the next statue but one you will all blush."

Stolen Car Found.

An abandoned Hudson super-six car without oil or gas or number plates was found in the rear of the West Richmondville school building Sunday morning. It was learned upon inquiry that the auto had been stolen from Dr. Cassidy of Saratoga. Officer Eli Wayman restored the car to its owner.
